

Course Title	MODERN GREEK I
Course Code	MGR 101
Course Purpose and Objectives	The purpose of this course is to offer to students the necessary communication skills for day to day interaction. The course provides knowledge on the basic grammar; vocabulary, expressions and functional situational dialogues. Students will acquire the basic reading, writing and speaking skills of the Greek language
Learning Outcomes	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Apply the Greek alphabet by reading and spelling Greek words. 2. Use the basic vocabulary, grammar, as well as practice dialogues of the every-day life. 3. Apply the grammar rules and make use of grammar, vocabulary and expressions which have been already taught. 4. Identify vocabulary, grammar, expressions in texts and dialogues. 5. Apply criticism and creativeness, through integrating lectures with the use of self-evaluating projects, teamwork and project simulation. Construct simple sentences and try to communicate in Greek.
Course Content	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Greek alphabet, Greek vowel and consonants, Pronunciation in Greek and accent marks. • Articles • Nouns • Adjectives • Pronouns • Adverbs of quantity, time, place • Preposition • Verbs