

Course Title	BUSINESS LAW
Course Code	LAW 211
Course Purpose and Objectives	The purpose of this course is to teach students the basic legal concepts. On completion of this course students will have knowledge of the English, European and Cyprus legal systems. They will learn the general rules of agency and the basic nature of contractual agreements. Terms such as offer, acceptance, consideration and intention to create a legal relationship will be explained. The different negotiable instruments and types of securities will also be analyzed.
Learning Outcomes	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Define the basic legal principles of Cyprus, English and European legal systems. 2. Explain the basic nature of contractual agreements the general rules of agency, partnership and companies hyper of securities and insolvency. 3. Apply the different legal principles and show the rights and duties of the partner involved in agreements. 4. Explain the legal terms, offer, acceptance, consideration and intention to create a legal relationship and contractual capacity and demonstrate how these are applied in practice. 5. Apply the different negotiable instruments and types of securities.
Course Content	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • The legal system • The law of contracts • Agency and partnership • Companies • Bankruptcy • Employment regulations