

Course Title	WRITING SKILLS
Course Code	ENG 104
Course Purpose and Objectives	The course is focused on improving writing skills, understanding copyrights, and mastering referencing for diploma students should have clear purposes and objectives that align with the students' educational and professional development. The purposes and objectives are to guide the students through the content and activities within the course and help them develop essential skills for academic and professional success. It is important to follow a balanced and comprehensive curriculum that combines theory with practical exercises to achieve these objectives.
Learning Outcomes	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Demonstrate writing skills by producing clear, organized, and well-structured academic and professional documents. 2. Exhibit an understanding of ethical writing practices, including proper citation, attribution, and avoidance of plagiarism. 3. Explain the fundamentals of copyright law and intellectual property rights, including how to protect their own work and respect the work of others. 4. Use of cite and reference sources using a specified citation style in their written assignments. 5. Apply the appropriate citation style in their written assignments, including creating in-text citations and references accurately. 6. Utilize feedback from instructors and peers to revise and refine their written work, demonstrating growth in writing skills. 7. Develop a professional writing demeanour and the ability to adapt their writing to various professional contexts and audiences.
Course Content	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Writing Skills: • Copyrights: • Referencing: • Proper and ethical use of AI: • Seek Guidance