

Course Title	LEADERSHIP IN ORGANISATION
Course Code	MGT 417
Course Purpose and Objectives	Organizations seek those with leadership ability because they bring special assets to business and improve the bottom line of a company. This course treats leadership as a complex process having multiple dimensions. Students will learn analytical and practical foundations to anticipate leadership challenges. They will be encouraged to develop new techniques to improve leadership effectiveness through team work, role play and discussion. They will be able to critically evaluate the impact of culture and gender on leadership performance.
Learning Outcomes	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Analyze the basic and contemporary approaches to leadership. 2. Critically evaluate the multiple dimensions in leadership process. 3. Develop new techniques to improve leadership performance. 4. Critically evaluate the impact of culture and gender on leadership process. 5. Discuss the techniques to develop ethical ways to lead organization. 6. Adapt different leadership styles in different situations
Course Content	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Introduction to leadership in organization • Basic approaches to leadership • Contemporary issues in leadership • Leadership ethics • Leadership development • Culture and gender in leadership • Developing & communicating a vision • Leading a change