

Course Title	MACROECONOMICS
Course Code	ECO 300
Course Purpose and Objectives	The purpose of this course is to introduce students to the macroeconomic principles and learn how the economy operates as a whole and how the theories apply in practice. Its main focus is to facilitate the analysis of important economic aggregates such as the national income, inflation, unemployment, economic growth, exchange rates, balance of payment and understand how they influence our lives.
Learning Outcomes	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Analyze the different macroeconomic concepts and examine how GDP, inflation and unemployment are measured. 2. Examine the different problems associated with inflation and unemployment; both financial and social. 3. Explain the Banking system and the functions of the Central Bank. 4. Analyze fiscal and monetary policy to solve inflation and unemployment problems. 5. Explain the importance of the exchange rate market and the balance of payment as well as national and global current economic issues.
Course Content	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • National income • Unemployment • Inflation • Economic growth • Defining the money supply • Instruments of monetary policy • Balance of payments • Exchange rates • International trade