

Course Title	MANAGERIAL FINANCE
Course Code	FIN 423
Course Purpose and Objectives	The purpose of this course is to teach students the management methods necessary to make decisions from a financial point of view. Students will develop the knowledge and skills expected of Financial Managers in relation to investment, financing and dividend policy decisions. They will be able to apply the relevant knowledge and skills acquired and to exercise their judgment in taking decisions relating to the financial management of an organization.
Learning Outcomes	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Analyze the role and purpose of the financial management function. 2. Examine the impact of the economic environment of financial management and apply working capital management techniques. 3. Prepare investment appraisals and apply alternative sources of business finance. 4. Explain and calculate the cost of capital and the factors which affect it. 5. Explain the principles of business and asset valuation as well as risk management techniques in business.
Course Content	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • A framework for financial management • Investment decisions and strategies • Working capital and management • Cost of capital • Short-term and long-term financing and policies • Strategic financial decisions • Business valuation • Risk and the required return