

Course Title	INDUSTRIAL PLACEMENT
Course Code	IND COM
Course Purpose and Objectives	Industrial training takes place during the last semester of studies. Students are given the option of either doing registering for two subjects OR Industrial Training. The aim of Industrial Training is to introduce students to IT industry and provide them with the opportunity to apply all the knowledge gained during the three (3) semesters of their studies in the programme of Computer Studies. Furthermore, this will give them an opportunity to establish networks within the IT industry and make it easier for them to find a job upon completion of their studies.
Learning Outcomes	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>1. Acquire the maturity to complete a substantial piece of work – given a task for implementation.</li> <li>2. Apply theoretical and practical knowledge gained during studies.</li> <li>3. Possess the dedication, commitment and passion for detail and analytical thinking required to successfully complete a task.</li> <li>4. Acquire the knowledge and skills required by their programme of study.</li> <li>5. Be able to work independently and/or in groups and produce work which is professionally sound.</li> <li>6. Work in the IT industry and understand the real needs of this job, making it easier to them to adjust to the workplace.</li> </ol>
Course Content	Students who choose this option should find a company to work in the IT department as junior programmers in Software Developing Companies, junior supporters in the field of Operating Systems or Networks and in general as IT troubleshooters or supporters in hardware and software maintenance. They should complete 300 hours of training.