Course Title	ADVANCED ENGLISH
Course Code	ENG 110
Course Purpose and Objectives	The purpose of this course is to assist students to achieve proficiency in written and spoken English and improve their listening skills to prepare them for the academic version of the IELTS examination. All the lessons are based around IELTS type tasks which are designed to stimulate and guide students. This course is appropriate for students ranging from intermediate to advanced level. The course enables students to tackle and comprehend more complex English texts and use their critical thinking when speaking or writing essays. This course also teaches students how to analyze data as well as provide arguments, opinions and justifications in English.
Learning Outcomes	1. Write discursive essays confidently and logically. 2. Accurately and clearly Describe charts, diagrams, maps, and processes. 3. Analyze advanced texts and answer questions (of varied forms) about the information given in articles. 4. Show an acceptable degree of fluency for 12 to 15 minutes while discussing a variety of subjects at an IELTS interview. 5. Make sense of conversations between two to four people using a variety of accents, and answer different types of questions about the particular situations and topics of these conversations.
Course Content	- Introduction - Reading skills - Writing skills - IELTS Reading and Writing Modules - Speaking skills - Listening Skills - IELTS Speaking and Listening Modules