

Course Title	MANAGEMENT ACCOUNTING II
Course Code	ACC 401
Course Purpose and Objectives	The purpose of this course is to advance understanding of cost accounting methods and their application in complex scenarios and equip students with advanced budgeting and forecasting techniques. Students will develop expertise in variance analysis and standard costing and enhance skills in performance measurement and value enhancement strategies. This course will prepare students for strategic decision-making using management accounting information.
Learning Outcomes	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Use advanced cost accounting techniques to various business contexts. 2. Develop and manage comprehensive budgets and conduct detailed variance analysis. 3. Use advanced statistical methods for business forecasting and analysis. 4. Implement effective performance measurement and management systems. 5. Analyze and enhance business value through strategic management accounting practices.
Course Content	Advanced Cost Accounting Techniques Advanced Budgeting and Forecasting Standard Costing and Variance Analysis Performance Measurement and Strategic Management Cost Reduction and Value Enhancement